Proving your identity

To comply with money laundering regulations and to protect our customers from fraud, we must confirm the identity and address of every applicant. We are able to access credit reference agency databases which, in most cases, will allow us to open your account without any paper-based identification. This will show as a search of the database only and not a credit score, so will not affect your credit rating. If we do need further proof of identification, we will let you know. If you are opening an account at one of our branches, you may want to bring two forms of ID with you, one form of identification for your identity and one for your address. To view our list of acceptable identification, please visit our website www.thetipton.co.uk, ask a member of our team, or call us on 0121 557 2551. We will not carry out credit reference agency searches against customers under 18.

Agreement to Assign Windfalls to Charity

Information on our charitable assignment arrangements can be found on our website or by visiting any of our branch offices. The following items below, will apply unless you are an exempt customer when your account is opened.

1. I/We agree that if the right to any windfall benefits is granted to me/us after the account is opened, I/we will assign those windfall benefits to the selected charity.
2. I/We authorise the Society and the successor to pass any windfall benefits direct to the selected charity (or to any other charity which the selected charity may nominate to receive those benefits), without notice to me/us.
3. I/We understand that:
 - the Society has promised to transfer to the selected charity the benefit of the agreement which I/we have given above;
 - neither the Society nor the selected charity will release me/us from that agreement; and

I/We understand the Society will require anyone who opens a share account (who is not then an exempt customer) to agree to assign to charity the right to any windfall benefits to which that person may become entitled. The terms of the agreement will be decided by the Society and may be different from the current terms. This will no longer apply if the Society publishes a termination notice.
